

“and who can tell but that many of the fine active people in the Church today are active because you were in their homes and gave them a new outlook, a new vision.

“You are going to save souls,” said President Kimball to visiting teachers,

You pulled back the curtain.
 You extended their horizons. ...
 “You see, you are not only saving these sisters, but perhaps also their husbands and their homes.”

