

The Lap Game

(Young Women version)

Have furniture or pillows on the ground arranged in a circle. Explain the rules of the game: "I'm going to ask a series of questions. If you can answer yes to the question, I want you to move one seat to your left. If you cannot answer yes to the question, I want you to stay where you are. As you can imagine, if you have done what I have asked, but the person to your left has not, you're going to have to share a seat. So get ready to get comfortable with each other! The first person to make it back to their original seat wins".
