

Divine Attributes of Jesus Christ: Powerful and Full of Glory

As we make and keep temple covenants, the Lord blesses us with His power. Linda K. Burton, Relief Society general president, said: “Covenant keeping strengthens, empowers, and protects. ... I recently met a dear new friend. She testified that after she had received her temple endowment, she felt strengthened with power to resist temptations.”

The scriptures teach us that Jesus Christ “received all power, both in heaven and on earth, and the glory of the Father was with him” (D&C 93:17). Elder M. Russell Ballard of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles said that by this power our Savior created the heavens and earth, performed miracles, and endured the pain of Gethsemane and Calvary.¹ As we come to understand this, our faith in Christ will increase, and we will become stronger.

Wherefore, we search the prophets, and we have many revelations and the spirit of prophecy; and having all these witnesses we obtain a hope, and our faith becometh unshaken, insomuch that we truly can command in the name of Jesus and the very trees obey us, or the mountains, or the waves of the sea. (Jacob 4:6-7).

Nephi bears testimony of covenant power: “I, Nephi, beheld the power of the Lamb of God, that it descended ... upon the covenant people of the Lord, ... and they were armed with righteousness and with the power of God in great glory” (1 Nephi 14:1).

The Savior uses His power to redeem and empower us. Our faith in Him will increase as we remember that He is full of power and glory.

The Power of God
arms us with power and glory
