

-----

Adhere pocket here

These covenants elevate us beyond the limits of our own power and perspective.

All the promised blessings are ours through our faithfulness to these covenants. . . .

The covenants we make with the associated ordinances we receive in the temple become our credentials for admission into God's presence.

