

“As daughters of God, you are preparing for eternal designations, and each of you has a FEMALE IDENTITY, NATURE, and RESPONSIBILITY. The success of families, communities, this Church, and the precious plan of salvation is dependent on your faithfulness. . . . Our Heavenly Father intended Relief Society to help build His people and prepare them for the blessings of the temple. He established Relief Society to align His daughters with His work and to enlist their help in building His kingdom and strengthening the homes of Zion.” - Sister Julie B. Beck

A pencil tucked behind the ear for jotting down impressions:

Keep a spiritual journal of times you have received spiritual knowledge of your identity as a daughter of God.

---

Read the scriptures

---

There is chalk dust on your skirt from the primary lesson you taught today!

Teaching others (in our families, in church callings, as a visiting teacher, and in the community) gives us opportunities to grow and learn ourselves.

---

Stand and share your testimony

We are all different things to different people; sometimes a daughter, a friend, a mother or sister. Other times we may be a teacher, a student, an employee, or the boss! All these labels constantly fluctuate depending on our environment - but one never does - that of daughter of God.

The flaps on this page can be overlapped and arranged in a variety of ways, illustrating how we, also, are viewed in different ways at different times. Throughout all these roles, we can come closer to our true identities as daughters of God when we act as disciples of Christ. Each flap represents a way we can come to understand our potential as daughters of God.

---

President Uchtdorf said this: "Discipleship is a journey. We need the refining lessons of the journey to craft our character and purify our hearts. By patiently walking in the path of discipleship, we demonstrate to ourselves the measure of our faith and our willingness to accept God's will rather than ours."

As we take this journey of discipleship, and remember our identity as daughters of God, we can find great joy and peace in knowing that there is a plan for us, that we are deserving of God's greatest blessings, and that we are needed to do God's work.

VT Message March 2012: Daughters in My Kingdom
inkablinka.com

Think, reflect and ponder your relationship with your Heavenly Father. Remember that He loves you.

---

Pray often

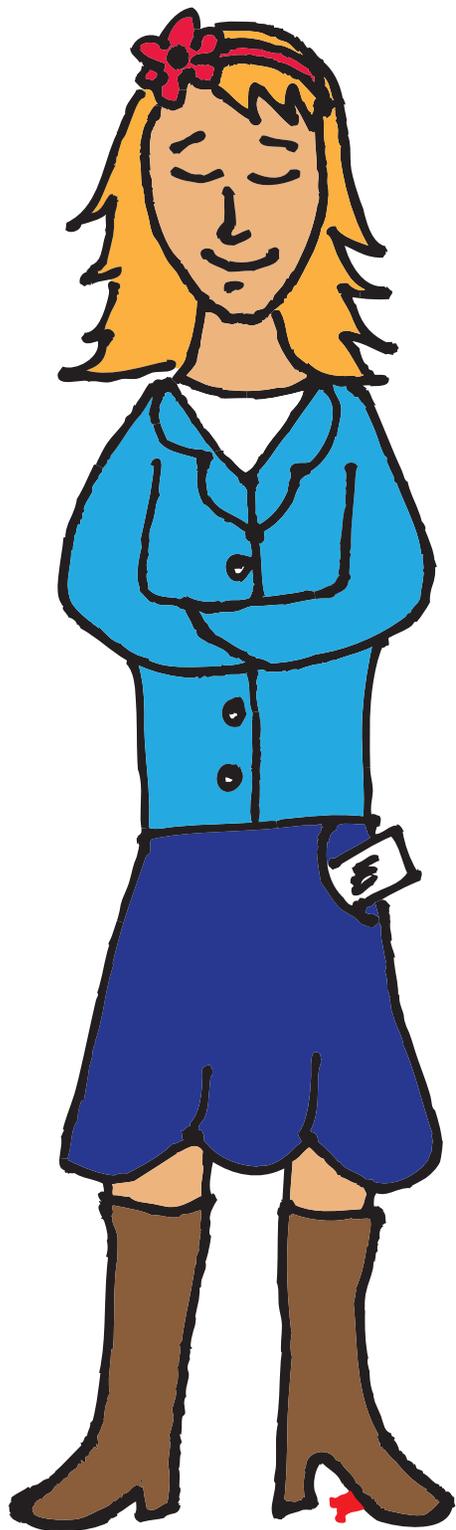

---

Keep a current temple recommend

---

A fruit snack got stuck to your boot when, at church, you scooted next to a child who's mother needed some help!

Be a nurturer.

“As daughters of God, you are preparing for eternal designations, and each of you has a FEMALE IDENTITY, NATURE, and RESPONSIBILITY. The success of families, communities, this Church, and the precious plan of salvation is dependent on your faithfulness. ... Our Heavenly Father intended Relief Society to help build His people and prepare them for the blessings of the temple. He established Relief Society to align His daughters with His work and to enlist their help in building His kingdom and strengthening the homes of Zion.” - Sister Julie B. Beck

